The Alemannia Music Foundation Support Fund

The Alemannia Music Foundation, Inc., is a non-profit educational organization whose purpose is to provide musical education and appreciation to amateur and professional musicians, as well as to the general public, with a particular emphasis on central and eastern European classical, folk, and popular music. This music provides the cultural basis for much of our music today, and through workshops and participatory performance the AMF provides public education and appreciation for the richness and diversity of this music. The AMF also seeks to promote the study of central and eastern European music by providing grants to schools and other educational institutions, as well as supporting civic and cultural societies, clubs, and organizations who seek music education and appreciation for their members. The AMF is a recognized 501(c)(3) non-profit educational organization which is supported by donations from private individuals and organizations. Your support is vital to the important mission of the Alemannia Music Foundation.
